You will have seen staff around school wearing a white ribbon and might be wondering what it means. By wearing the white ribbon, staff are making a personal promise to never cause or ignore violence, particularly against women. Each year, everyone is encouraged to wear a ribbon for 16 days, starting on 25 November, the International Day for the eradication of Violence against Women. If you like to support this campaign white ribbons are available (at no charge) from the Year 4 are appealing for any nicely shaped washed out jam jars, with the label removed, ready for making Christmas Crafts. If you have any jam jars please bring them into school as soon as possible.

Reminder that on the day of the Christmas Fair (Friday 5th Dec), in return for a non uniform day, we would be grateful if you could send in cakes, chocolates and biscuits and donations of any unwanted toys and games for our stalls.

We also need donations of teddies for the Year 1 stall, these are to be brought in on Wednesday 3rd December if you can help.

There are still lots of raffle tickets to sell so if you need any more books please call in at the school office.

If you would like to sell your own produce at the Christmas Fair stalls are available to hire at £15.00 each. Just let the school office know.

Key Stage 1 & Early Years Production

Please could all Key Stage 1 & Early Years Production costumes be in school by next Thursday 4th December.

On Tuesday 9th December Year 4 are going to be treated to a Christmas Forest School morning. Children may come to school in their home clothes suitable for the outdoors and it is advisable that they bring a pair of wellies as well as shoes to get changed back in to. We would like to express a huge thank you to Sharon Smith (step mum of Daren Norgrove in year 4) who is forest school trained and has kindly volunteered to come in and lead the Forest School with the children.
