In order to relieve congestion in the office, could children please bring envelopes, letters, money etc to the class teacher who will collect it and send it down. Thank you.

Thank you to everyone who came along and supported our Christmas Fair and cake sale. We raised a fantastic £854. Thank you also, for taking part in our Christmas raffle, which has raised £551.

The Class Christmas parties are this week. Your child should have received a slip indicating what we would like them to bring. They may come in party clothes but please remember warmth and sensible shoes as they will be playing outside as normal.

Reminder to please let us have payment of £15.00 per child for the whole school theatre trip no later than Wednesday 17th December.

It's a Party! - On Wednesday morning Key stage 1 and Early Years performed a wonderful Christmas play to a packed hall of parents, carers and friends. All the children danced, acted and sung well and looked amazing in the costumes provided by their parents. Thank you to all those who came to watch, we hope you enjoyed it as much as the children enjoyed performing it

Reception and Nursery thoroughly enjoyed their trip to Bodenham Arboretum. They spent the day making Christmas decorations, cooking on the fire and exploring the forest school area. They also went on a nativity trail around the Arboretum. A lot of fun was had by all and the experience allowed the children to explore, problem solve and risk take.
