On Tuesday 13th September Year 3 and 4 celebrated Roald Dahl's 100th birthday by dressing up as their favourite character from the fabulous books. Children were visited by the BFG who explained that the nasty giants had stolen all his dream catching tools and it was up to the children to make some more. Dream catchers, trumpets and glass jars were all put into production to help the BFG. The human beans created some wondrous designs and the day was saved! In the afternoon we settled down to watch a worldwide live broadcast, in which Quentin Blake demonstrated how to draw the BFG, and the cast of Matilda performed a song from the hit show. We hope that the children enjoyed the day and will provide them with some phizzwizard ideas to put into their writing.
