On Friday 31st March at 9.15am we will be having our KS2 Easter Service at St Cassian's Church in Chaddesley Corbett village. Year 5 will be leading the service and all of KS2 will support the singing.

The rehearsal will take place at St Cassian's Church on the morning of Thursday 30th March.

Children will need to be dropped at the church between 8:45 and 9am on both days (teachers will be there to supervise). Please do not leave your child unattended until their teacher is supervising them.

Those attending Breakfast Club will be walked over to the church by staff.

On both the 30th & 31st March, children in KS1 and EYFS should be dropped off at school as usual.

On both days the children will return to school walking across the fields to the back of the school. Please ensure they have suitable footwear and a coat.

All parents/carers of pupils in KS2 are invited to join us on Friday 31st March
