

6 Topic Homework Grid

Geography: North America

History: The Rise & Fall of Hitler

Primary Source Analysis: Provide students with speeches, letters, or newspapers from Germany at the end of World War I. Have them analyse the documents to understand the sentiments, challenges, and aspirations of the German people during this period.	Role-play and Reflection: Ask children to Imagine they are living in Germany at the end of WWI, taking on the roles of different citizens such as soldiers, politicians, or ordinary civilians. After the role-play, have them write a reflective essay discussing the impact of the war.	Interview a Witness: Interview a family member or friend who may have knowledge or personal experiences related to World War II. Have them compile a report summarising the insights gained from the interview.	Timeline Creation: Create a detailed timeline of key events in Hitler's life, from his early years to the end of World War II. Include important political decisions and military campaigns.
Map Exploration: Using a blank map of North America, label and colour countries, major rivers, and mountain ranges. Encourage research to learn interesting facts about each region.	Cultural Collage: Create a collage showcasing the diverse cultures of North America. Include traditional clothing, foods, landmarks, and any unique aspects they discover during their research.	Travel Journal: Create a travel journal by imagining they are on a journey across North America. Include details such as the places they visit, information about the climate, and any interesting experiences they encounter.	Culinary Exploration: Research and prepare a dish from a North American region of their choice. They should include information about the ingredients, geographical origins and cultural significance.

This homework is not compulsory!

If your child completes any of these activities, please bring them to school so we can put them on display and celebrate your child's effort.